- 4.10. Clients will be required to complete a questionnaire outlining travel arrangements, dietary preferences, etc. and return it to Hunt Africa, together with a travel itinerary, at least 30 days prior to the commencement date.
- 4.11. Prices as quoted are based on current exchange rates and are subject to errors and omissions. Although every effort will be made to keep prices fixed it may be necessary to make minor adjustments as a result of unforeseen excessive exchange rate fluctuations.

5. Liability

- 5.1. Whilst every effort is made by Hunt Africa Safaris and the professional hunter/s or guide to ensure the safety of the client, no responsibility can be accepted for any illness, accident, injury or loss whatsoever suffered by the client whilst on safari with Hunt Africa, or any expenses arising from such illness, accident, injury or loss.
- 5.2. Clients are responsible for their own individual health, travel, trip interruption and cancellation insurance's and should contact their insurance broker or travel agent for quotations on available packages.
- 5.3. Furthermore, Hunt Africa Safaris or the Professional Hunter will not accept any responsibility for trophies after its proper field preparation or personal goods left behind in camps, aircraft or vehicles.
- 5.4. The client certifies that he/she is in good health and that he/she has no physical limitations, which would preclude his/her safe participation in the safari or associated activities.
- 5.5. The client furthermore certifies that he/she has full knowledge of the nature and extent and of the risk inherent in the participation in hunting safari activities and the rugged and harsh areas in which such activities often take place and that he/she is voluntarily assuming such risks.
- 5.6. It is agreed by both Hunt Africa Safaris/Professional Hunter/Guide and the client that this agreement shall be governed, interpreted and enforced pursuant to the Laws of the Country, State, Province and locality in which the Safari takes place.
- 5.7. If any person refuses to abide by the rules and regulations laid down by Hunt Africa Safaris, the safari may be cancelled at any time.

6. Healthcare

- 6.1. At present, compulsory vaccinations are generally not required for entry into Africa.
- 6.2. We do however strongly recommend that all clients start a recognised preventative course for malaria before arrival and continue after leaving the country, if hunting should take place in areas where Malaria is endemic.
- 6.3. Hepatitis A & B and Tetanus vaccinations could also be considered. Please consult your regular Physician or a recognised Travel Clinic.

7. Value Added Tax

- 7.1. Daily rates and trophy fees quoted are inclusive of any and all taxes (value added tax, general sales tax etc.) imposed by the governing authority of the relevant area in which the hunt takes place.
- 7.2. Taxidermy fees quoted are generally exclusive of Value Added Tax (VAT) in view of the fact that trophies destined for exportation by foreign clients do not attract VAT.
- 7.3. Daily Rates (not trophy fees) for hunts conducted in South Africa are subject to 14% Value Added Tax.

It is the understanding that the client has studied and understood the foregoing terms and conditions.
